Called “Maruha Sela Manase” (We are the Tradition) and staged at the exhibition centre of the Multi Purpose hall in Pasar Seni, this year’s edition saw the participation of leading home, fashion and footwear product manufacturers, garments exporters, as well as fashion bloggers and connoisseurs. It also featured Malaysia’s first-ever fashion parade where fashion designers demonstrated their creativity by displaying their collections to a backdrop of music. This year’s edition also launched the new “Petronas Paper Arts” (PAPA) initiative, which seeks to elevate Malaysian paper arts to international heights by showcasing the artwork of the world renowned master paper artist, Wilson Chua, who lives in Malaysia.
