character, in the continuation of the story, continues, begun in the first part, the story of his business. His life is changing. He is trying to find all of his time for his wife. But he does not succeed. He fails because his wife left him. And the reason for that was his inattention to her. As a result, he decides to find a man for his wife.

He doesn't just want to have fun; he wants to find a decent man for her. This is very important to her, just as it is important to the main character himself. He understands that he may lose the woman he has lived with for so many years. She was the only person close to him, but he spoils everything, although he tries to change the situation.
