One of the best ways to stay in shape is to exercise regularly. You can enjoy the beauty of your exercise routine by making it part of your daily life. Have a look at these tips to stay active throughout your day. 1. Add walking into your routine If you have an opportunity to walk or jog, you should definitely take advantage of it. Walking is a good way to burn calories and stay in shape. If you don't have the time to walk during the day, you can go for a walk after work or before bedtime. You can even use your time while waiting for the bus or train to exercise. 2. Workout at home If you don't have time to go to the gym, you can still keep in shape at home. You can exercise in the comfort of your own home. You can do squats, situps, push-ups, or bicep curls. These are just some of the exercises you can do at home. 3. Use the stairs instead of elevators If you don't have time to work out in the gym, you can still use the stairs instead. You can use the stairs when you are at work or college. You can walk up and down the stairs several times during the day. Don't forget to take the stairs whenever you go shopping, or go to the bathroom. 4. Run for a minute If you don't have time to go to the gym, you can use running as a form of exercise. Run at least for a minute and take a break. You can also use it when you're waiting for a bus or train. Run up and down the stairs or even go for
