Winater Play is a small but resourceful program for creating playlists and designing audio CDs and DVDs that works with dozens of media files. It can create playlists for your music collection, create playlists that autoplay when a DVD is inserted in the DVD-ROM or create playlists that are inserted with the CD. It works on Windows 2000, XP, Windows Vista and Windows 7 (32-bit and 64-bit) and is available in both Freeware and Lite editions. In the Freeware edition, you get free updates for Winater Play and the Lite edition allows you to purchase the application without having to enter any payment details. The Lite version of Winater Play is not free and can be purchased for $20. The Lite edition allows you to create only 15 playlists and not more. The original software offers a lot of support and features and is worth every penny you pay. The Lite edition still works with all the playlists that you can make with the main edition. The application automatically detects your collection of files and adds them to the playlists that you create. You can re-arrange the order of the playlist created as desired and the only thing that the application requires is your musical expertise. It is easy to use and you don't have to configure or tweak anything as the application comes with all the instructions you need. The player supports a wide range of formats including M4A, M2TS, 3GPP, AAC, M3U, RMI, AIF, WAV, VOB, M1V, ASF, WMA, GIF, PNG, JPEG and 3GP. As indicated in the app, the player can use all the indexes that are available in your collection of files. The different file formats are supported for your convenience and you can even create playlists that support audio only or video only in addition to the combination of the two. The app allows you to access your files from within the playlist and you can switch between the files in the playlist and the individual files on the disk. For instance, you can turn your playlist into a playable DVD and use it as you would with your DVDs. You can use the app to maintain all the songs on your collection and this can help you with the process of managing your collection. The only downside to the application is that the one you create is not uploaded to the web and you cannot make copies of the playlist and hand them over to your friends. It only works with computers and is therefore

What's New in the?

Developed by Winaterc, the Winater Play program helps you create automatic media CD and DVD-ROMs. The application allows you to easily create batches of your own media videos or mixes and you can add music and images in order to create DVDs. Once you have created your list of images, you can select the different media to include in your CDs and DVDs. Create a new playlist of your desired content The Winater Play does not require any setup or setup but comes with a set of instructions in how to create your first playlist. From the instruction, you will be guided to create a new directory where you will place the image files you would like to include in your list. Then, you have to add these media to the list you have created. As soon as you click the update button, the app will automatically create a list for you and display it on the main page of the program. When it comes to the display of media, the app allows you to add audio files, video files and image files into your list of files. Then you can set the price per CD or DVD or select a number of CDs or DVDs you want to burn before you go ahead. Once you have set the prices for the media you will burn, you can simply click the Create. Make sure that you also select a file to keep in your list of images, which will ensure that you can find this image file whenever you want to burn an image. You can also select a number of images to display on your list of images. The images can be selected from your hard disk and you can add and remove any images from the list of images. You are then directed to the Output page where you will be able to select a location where you would like to save your output files. If you want to make sure that your finished list of CDs and DVDs are of the high quality, you can even choose to save these files in HD. The app is fully compatible with the latest versions of Windows XP, Windows Vista and Windows 7 and you can use it on PC and MAC. You can use the app to create autoplay of CDs and DVDs in a matter of minutes. Winater Play software
